ABDG will be supporting our many clients in this very important market place.

Joining ABDG's President and CEO Bill Skipper will be Michael Hurst, ABDG's Vice President and COO and Jim LeNoir, ABDG's Vice President for Defense and Homeland Security Programs along with 22 other ABDG representatives. ABDG would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you and discuss ways we have been able to help companies like yours capture business and market share in these very competitive times in the DOD. Please accept this invitation to meet with our team to discuss ways we can help you become more successful.

ABDG will also be hosting our annual AUSA reception on Tuesday night in the Renaissance Hotel, just across the street from the Convention Center. The reception will be in Ball Room "A" which is one level below the Hotel Lobby. Your co-workers, friends and guests are also invited.
